

StarPathways BEACON

by Elizabeth Jones

Astrology and Tarot to Illuminate Your Path

For Solar Cancer ~ 6/21 to 7/22 ~ 2022

“Let the waters settle and you will see the Moon and Stars mirrored in your own being. ~ Rumi

Welcome to this new version of the Beacon called StarPathways Beacon (aka “SPW Beacon”). There is so much change happening as we all go through the Transition of Ages. I, too, am going through some major life changes which you can learn more about here: tinyurl.com/2e36w9zx

One of the biggest differences with this version of the Beacon is that I’m offering it on a donation basis* or FREE, if you aren’t able to donate at this time. What I feel is most important is to get this information out there with the hopes of helping others to navigate the dynamic cosmic forces in play so please feel free to post on social media and/or just share with friends! *To donate go here: tinyurl.com/2e36w9zx

~ The Call of Your Soul During the Time of Solar Cancer ~

As stated before, we are in a time of accelerated personal and planetary evolution as we transition to a New Age. The overall energies will increase in intensity as we approach a pentacle year: 2025 (I’ll be writing more on this in the months to come).

A key element of this planetary shift is the descent of greater light entering this realm and as it does is exposing the outdated systems and structures that no longer support life on our planet. Yet many are holding on to the old paradigms, beliefs and structures even as they are crumbling and falling apart.

Those on a spiritual path and/or a path of awakening are more open to the new energies streaming forth. As things are changing around them shifts are also taking place within...yet these can create restlessness, uncertainty and confusion. Its good to consider that they are actually designed to prompt you to strip away what you’ve outgrown and eliminate from your life what no longer resonates with who you are as well as who you’re becoming.

Through all this something quite magical and wonderful is also taking place: We are being prepared to *respond to the Call of Our Soul...*a call so strong it brings to the surface the reality of our longing.

This profound longing relates to our emotional body which corresponds with the astral realm. This is where our Soul’s dream descends from the higher realms allowing it to link with our consciousness. *It is in the astral world where we can use our innate faculties of imagination to translate that dream to a profound longing...*a longing so strong it fuels that dream to becoming a reality. And so the process of manifestation begins.

How this relates to Solar Cancer and the Solstice...

A rare celestial event is happening now: Five planets are visible in the early morning hours. Saturn is the highest in the sky, then to the left Jupiter, Mars, Venus and Mercury (closest to the eastern horizon). PLUS the Moon (ruler of Cancer) will also be joining them during this week of the Solstice! So every celestial body in our solar system (except the Sun of course) that we can see without a telescope is visible to the naked eye. (Best viewing time is 45-60 minutes before sunrise.)

Astrologically this is important for two reasons:

1-Since this configuration is occurring at the time of the Cancer Solstice its influence will be in effect for the entire quarter until the Libra Equinox on 9/22.

2-AND since it's happening just before the Sun rises there will be a lot of ethereal activity occurring in our dream/sleep state. It's quite likely that a lot has been brewing in your subconscious of late and now, in this next quarter, much will be emerging from there that will be relevant to "the Call of Your Soul" for the portals and gateways opened at the Solstice allows your Soul presence to flood your psyche with its agenda and for where to go from here.

Edit: Mid-month is an important time to watch for it is when Mercury (the messenger of the Gods) is catching up with the Sun (our conscious awareness) and will very likely have plenty to impart. Hence pay extra attention during that time to what you're thinking, to conversations and to ideas and insights you may have as they could all be messages that will bring clarity to what's been taking place on the astral realms of late.

At this time a threshold is crossed between you subconscious to your conscious mind bringing insights and information for what your Soul is calling you towards so you can live the life that embraces your true potential and to allow the life force descending from the higher realms to be lived through you.

Sending you light-filled blessings. ~Elizabeth

:: Key Events During Solar Cancer 2022 (6/21 to 7/22) ::

6/21 Sun enters Cancer at 2:13 am PT until 7/22 As stated above shifts are in the air! Be open to the transformative energies swirling around. •Areas of focus this month: Family, home, children's well-being; the generation before and after you; feeling safe and secure, what nurtures and sustains you. Your roots and what gives you a sense of belonging, home and comfort. •Qualities to develop: Making your Self a priority. Listening to and heeding your intuition. Being receptive. Nurturing others while also allowing yourself to be nurtured. Honoring yours (and others) feelings. Being a good listener. •Lower frequencies: Dwelling on/regretting events of the past. Ignoring your deeper emotions as they arise. •What to be grateful for: Your connection to others, your family and home. The gifts of your ancestral heritage and your spiritual lineage. What opportunities to look for and ways to connect with the higher frequencies: Being renewed through connecting to the Light of your spiritual lineage. Healing old wounds, possibly even from past lives. Discovering where you belong and what is calling you. Making decisions that move you towards your true destiny and soul purpose.

Other events taking place this month...

6/22 Venus enters Gemini until 7/17 Enhances and enriches social activities and all forms of communication and exchanges as the desire to connect and share increases. Venus here also softens our tone and can ease difficult conversations. Will help to dissipate negativity and anxiety and to lighten things up which can help in navigating the intensity taking place these days.

6/25 to 6/28 Mystical Balsamic Moon Phase This is an especially fertile time as is the Balsamic phase this month. Hence the intentions you set and/or what you envision has greater potential to take hold in your psyche and then to manifest in your life. There is a feeling of karmic culmination present as an old cycle is ending, laying the ground for a new one to begin.

During this time the veils between worlds are especially thin, allowing you to connect with places of mystical otherworldliness. This is especially true now as Neptune is also stationing retrograde...

6/28 New Moon at 7:53 pm at 7°23' Cancer & Neptune stations retrograde until 12/3

Emphasizes: Compassion, empathy, home and family dynamics. Strong emotions are likely and you may feel quite vulnerable and/or ultra-sensitive. Memories surface unexpectedly and you find you feel nostalgic, longing for a simpler time. Jupiter is squaring the Sun-Moon which can magnify any of these making everything feel and seem bigger and more important than they actually may be.

Key aspect: Neptune, the most mystical and spiritual of the planets, is also stationing retrograde now and adds another layer of mystery and perhaps confusion to this time making it a challenge to stay centered and focused. Overall, during these few days you may feel spacy, more sensitive and impressionable. Be sure to rest and retreat as needed. *It's helpful to remember that the cosmic agenda of Neptune is to help us surrender to a higher will, to deepen your connection to Spirit and to bring greater peace of mind. *This can be a time of inspiration initiating a renewal of faith and hope. Trust your intuition and listen to messages as they will be abundant around this lunation.

6/29 to 7/2 Mars square Pluto Very dynamic energies are present bringing instability to the air. The status quo is challenged and no longer acceptable resulting in some potentially disruptive events, volatility and aggressive power plays. Personally this aspect asks you to dig deep to find the source of resistance to change. As you do a potent creative force is tapped into that greatly increases your capacity to manifest your dreams.

7/4 Mars enters Taurus until 8/20 Facilitates productivity and being able to get and stay focused. Helps you in accomplishing tasks requiring stamina and perseverance. Can help to stabilize the emotions and get more grounded. Mars here seeks approaches that are uncomplicated and simple to implement. Some cautions: Can increase stubbornness and resistance to change even if it is what is best for the situation at hand. Brings a greater focus to the financial sectors, as well as to your own finances.

7/4 Mercury enters Cancer until 7/19 Your thoughts and feelings tend to merge into one process allowing you to make decisions and take action based on both. You feel more impressionable than usual and extra-sensitive to your environment. Increases nostalgia and melancholy. Heightens intuition. Trust your instincts.

7/13 Full/Super Moon at 11:38 am PT at 21°21' Capricorn

Emphasizes: Traditions; karma/destinies; your foundation and home base, family and multi-generation issues plus finding a sustainable home-work balance. Culminations occur and results from past actions become clearer on or around this FM. Dynamic Mars plays a subtle but key role in outcomes making it very important to take slow down and be extra mindful before acting or making decisions.

Key aspect: Moon conjunct Pluto and opposite the Sun indicates that something significant needs to be uncovered and released in order to move on. It also intensifies the sense of urgency that will likely be in the air. Issues related to control of power are also prominent especially in the World at large.

7/17 Venus enters Cancer until 8/11 Venus is comfortable in Cancer as her loving inclinations turn towards caregiving and nurturing. Now it's easier to be empathic and compassionate. If you're feeling stretched or overwhelmed Venus here serves to remind you that simple things like preparing a healthy meal, spending time outdoors or going for a leisurely walk can replenish a weary soul. Beautifying/decorating your home can be very nurturing as well.

7/19 Mercury enters Leo until 8/3 Stimulates your imagination and creativity. Your desire to express yourself in some way could be stronger than usual. Lively and dynamic conversations occur more frequently. Avoid being melodramatic, arrogant and/or prideful. Don't make mountains out of molehills!

7/22 Sun enters Leo at 1:06 pm until 8/22 Emphasis: Your courage, what brings you joy and creativity. Brings enthusiasm to some area of your life. >See next month's StarPathways Beacon for more info.

Spiritual Focus for the Month: Allowing the Universe to support and nurture you. Connecting to your spiritual lineage can bring revelations and comfort. Your longing for connection to the Divine is strong. Spiritual visions, insights and initiatory experiences are possible. From an esoteric perspective: As well as your physical home Cancer also rules the home for your soul while incarnated. This can help to explain why we often feel home sick and long for a more peaceful and nurturing environment during Solar Cancer. Creating a space or an altar in your home encourages your soul to descend further into your consciousness and your body. Cancer is: "The Light within form" which is said to be the dark light of matter, awaiting the stimulation of the Soul. ~Esoteric Astrologer-Malvin Atley

 TAROT READINGS for Solar Cancer **

NOTE: Audios for these readings are here: <https://starpathways.com/spw-beacon-cancer-2022/>

~ Please feel free to share SPW Beacon with others ~

TAROT-1: How the energies present this month relate to you personally...

The Tarot is a wonderful symbolic and mystical reflection of the astrological and cosmic energies that stream forth through the planets during this time.

This reading is designed to give you insights into how these energies are impacting you personally and in your life in subtle and often not so subtle ways. Plus the cards will offer insights for how you can attune to the higher frequencies present which help you in navigating the more intense energies present these days.

During the time of Solar Cancer-6/21 to 7/22-the primary themes relate to nurturing yourself and to bringing a greater emphasis to what you cherish and care about. Hence these themes and qualities may well show up not only in your life during this time but also in these readings.

1-What is most important for me to focus on this month?

>Internally (inner life): Queen of Swords >Externally (outer life): The Hanged Man XII

2-What new path or opportunity will show up that I need to be on the lookout for? Emperor IV

3-Message from Spirit/higher self to help guide and support you during this time: The Star XVII

TAROT-2: Your question, issue or situation...

This reading is designed to give you insights into a personal issue you're dealing with in your life, a work or relationship challenge, something of a spiritual nature, etc.

Here's how it works:

1. Before listening to this reading, you need to have the issue, question or challenge you wish to gain insights about in mind. Be sure to put it in the form of a question rather than as a yes-no. Basically we're looking at the energy around this question or issue.
2. Once you know what you want to ask about, be sure to write it down as how you ask is directly related to the insights the cards will give you, as you'll discover.
3. Know that while you may not relate to everything I say about a card, you will very likely hear some message(s) that feel especially relevant to you and your situation. Pay attention to that!
4. Also, you may find that when re-listening to the reading later in the month, you hear something that previously you hadn't before but now feels relevant and helpful.
5. In addition to the original question that you ask, you can also ask a different question later about another issue and then listen to the reading again and gain new and different insights. It's as though you'll hear what I say about the cards from a new angle when you have a new question in mind.

Key Theme: Queen of Cups

1-What is this issue about from a Tarot perspective? 6 of Pentacles

2-What is the current challenge of this situation that I need to focus on? 3 of Rods

3-What course of action is required at this time that will move me towards resolving this issue/situation?
8 of Cups

4-What message does Spirit have for me about this issue/situation? 6 of Cups with the Fool 0
