"When you know that you are greater than any lower condition that may exist in mind or body, you gain the power to transcend limitations." ~Christian D. Larson, The Pathway to Roses

We must let go of the life we have planned in order to live the life that is waiting for us." ~Joseph Campbell

Each year the 30 days of Solar Capricorn (12/21 to 1/20) brings opportunities to reflect on your true path...the one that leads to and embraces your destiny.

The Sun entering Capricorn brings us to the Winter Solstice (Summer in the southern hemisphere). Solstices and Equinoxes bring us to major turning points and this will certainly be true this year. The chart for the exact time of the Solstice gives us insights into the coming quarter and this year's Solstice chart is especially dynamic and intriguing as several things are taking place such as Jupiter re-entered Aries just hours before the Sun entered Capricorn. Plus there is a New Moon just hours after the Solstice.

This message from Spirit came through about the Solstice this year: This solstice brings you to the precipice of a major astrological shift that will usher in a new wave of acceleration triggering experiences in the months ahead that are initiatory in nature.

Basically waves of energy will be released in the coming quarter bringing experiences beyond what we may have even considered or thought possible! It would seem the cosmos is expanding us so that we can embrace a greater potential for our life going forward. Clearly this is time to be open to your dreams as they seek to take shape during the first few months of 2023!

Key energies in the months ahead are related to freedom and independence, especially from whatever has held you back in the past. A natural reaction to these waves of energy may be resistance for your center may shift rather radically. (I get the image of Dorothy landing in Oz!) These shifts will take most likely first that place internally so that you can adjust to them before occurring in the physical. These may generate visions, vivid dreams and life-changing realizations though also possible are disturbances like insomnia, disorientation and/or feeling ungrounded. Asking that your vibration be raised will help you to accommodate these shifts of energy.

Also pay attention to chance encounters and synchronicities as they will likely be significant in some way (this is often how Uranus, also involved in this chart in a rather obscure way, shows up in our life).

Trust that new levels of courage and willingness will be present just when needed. Remember that your Soul consented to be here now! It truly is a privilege to be alive at this time for great amounts of Light are descending from the higher planes, assisting us in awakening in new and exciting ways.

Call upon your spirit allies, such as your inner Spiritual Warrior and Guardian Angel, as they will help you navigate through these energies in ways that are exactly what is needed and perfect for you at this time. All you need do is if ask for their help. Have faith that we are not meant to do take the journey alone!

Sending you many blessings during this wonderful time of enlightenment! ~ Elizabeth

Spiritual Focus for the Month

Key spiritual themes this month: Karma/fate and dharma/destiny are emphasized now. Soul purpose specifically related to what your soul intended at this stage of your life. Ancient wisdom can be more easily accessed now. Capricorn "The Light of Initiation: This is the light which clears the way to the mountaintop and produces transfiguration, thus revealing the rising Sun." ~Malvin Atley, Esoteric Astrologer
Affirmation: I choose to align with my Higher Will to create greater order, purpose and peace in my life.

:: About the time of Solar Capricorn 2023 (12/21-1/20) ::

KEY to Capricorn: Magic is found in discovering and honoring your innate wisdom.

12/21 Sun enters Capricorn (Solstice) at 1:48 pm PT until 1/20 Brings additional emphasis to:

Work/career. Your basic foundations; what makes you feel secure. Your long-range goals for the year. Rules/ethics/values you live by. Authority figures (father, managers, etc.) and your relationship to them. Lower frequencies (LF): Dogmatic or rigid thinking/actions. Fear or resistance to change, even if it's positive. Not utilizing the spiritual insights that are being revealed. What to be grateful for: Your foundation, shelter and support systems. The accomplishments, growth and wisdom you've achieved. Your mentors and teachers. To attune to the higher frequencies (HF): Revisit your commitments and priorities to make sure they are still appropriate for where you are now. Create a structure and systems that help establish inner stability and outer security. Tools available: Being more disciplined. Connecting with your own inner authority. Seeing and acting on that which is within your ability to change things for the better.

 Key events taking place this month **

12/21 to 12/23 Mystical Balsamic Moon Phase. During the Balsamic and NM phase* the veils between worlds are especially thin, opening doorways to/from the higher realms allowing insights, images and new perspectives to enter. For those especially sensitive the energies present now can feel otherworldly and appear like being in the liminal space between two realms. *These mystical energies are present for 3 days prior to the NM each month and the 24 hours after the NM.

12/23 New Moon(NM) at 2:17 am PT at 1°33' Capricorn NOTE: This NM embodies the frequencies of the Solstice chart which I discuss on page one so be sure to read that as well for further insights into the significance of this lunation.

Brings additional emphasis to: Your responsibilities, obligations and commitments; Career/work, authority, the establishment/government; One or both of your parents, generational issues and patterns. Universal Logos (the natural laws that govern our existence), karma, integrity and truth principles, your soul's purpose and intentions for this time of your life. Integrity, morals and truth principles. Also realizations about how you manage your time and utilize your energy are to be paid attention to now!

What is possible/what to do or look for: •Discovering how to attain a higher level of mastery in some area of your life. Achievements from past efforts may now payoff, be rewarded or be recognized in some way in the coming weeks. You may feel pulled to revisit and reevaluate your commitments and priorities and in so doing create a new trajectory that is in greater alignment with your purpose and path.

Spirit Message: Where you place your attention is critically important now as there are powerful forces of manifestation in play. Therefore reflect on what connects you with the higher vision for you life. Destinies can and will be realized through the cosmic energies of this New Moon in the coming weeks!

Key Aspect: Jupiter just entered Aries and squares the Sun and Moon See page one message for insights and information about the impact of this event.

12/29 Mercury stations retrograde @ 24°31' Capricorn until 1/18/2023 This is most likely going to be a tricky retrograde since Mar—in the Mercury-ruled sign of Gemini—is also retrograde until 1/6 having a sort of double-whammy impact. Hence expect there to be more than usual miscommunications, missed appointments, misunderstandings, computer/cell issues, etc. from 12/29 to 1/7. You may also feel more scattered, frustrated, impatient, unfocused and/or anxious during this time. So much internal mental activity!

Mercury is retrograde in Capricorn is a good time to reflect on your priorities and goals for 2023 and to consider where you want to be a year from now. However it is not really conducive for decision-making, initiating projects or embarking on new ventures. Best to wait at least until Mars goes direct on the 6th but better still is to just hold off (if you can) until Mercury goes direct on the 18th. Lastly communications in the world at large may also be impacted and things like cyber attacks, major networks going down and internet issues are all quite likely. This may affect the markets as well. Mindfulness practice and careful listening to your inner voice/intuition and to others will help to mitigate the more challenging aspects of this combo.

1/2 Venus enters Aquarius until 1/26 While Venus is in Aquarius we feel more connected to humanity and the common bonds and concerns we all share. During this time it's easier to allow different approaches and values to be expressed in your interactions and conversations. You find yourself feeling strongly empathetic and want to reach out to those less fortunate than you. Unconditional, and perhaps unconventional, expressions of caring and love occur and could be quite unexpected and spontaneous during this time. Originality, creativity, independence and freedom all are emphasized now.

12/6 Full Moon at 3:08 pm PT at 16°22' Cancer Areas of life that get greater focus and/or emphasis during the Cancer Full Moon: Your ancestral lineage and how it impacts your life now. Self-nurturing and tending to what you care about. Generational dynamics, children and/or parents. What makes you feel secure which also includes your budgets and finances. Honoring your roots and where you came from. You may be feeling ultra-sensitive, moody and/or nostalgic, longing for how things were in the past to the point where it keeps you from living in the present. Be sure to take time to nurture all parts of yourself: mind, body, heart and soul.

What is possible now: This FM heightens both your intuition and your instincts allowing them to work in sync so use both in your decisions now. And if something just doesn't feel right or true it may not be!

Spirit Message: "Trust that you know what truly and deeply nurtures you—physically, emotionally, mentally and spiritually—if you are but willing to hear. Notice what messages you are getting about this and then take steps to honor this call for it is the clearest path forward to knowing your Soul's purpose and living in alignment with your authentic self."

Key Aspect: Mercury (retrograde) conjuncts the Sun and opposes the Moon This FM can help illuminate what is real and true for you through gaining greater clarity on what it is you truly care about. With Mercury retrograde conjunct the Sun this will require going within and perhaps asking some hard questions. Time to be realistic and honest with yourself and with others too! To that point reconnecting with people and interests you've cared about in the past can bring a sense of continuity and joy. Also occurring at the time of this FM is Mars stationing direct. Read next...

1/6 Mars stations direct @ 8°08' Gemini Mars retrograde in Gemini (it went retro on 10/30) has been kind of like Mercury retrograde on steroids! So many delays in all things related to communications and administration type things. Just seems there have been lots of delays these couple months and that things requiring contracts, agreements, decisions, connecting, etc. has been slow as molasses! And now...finally it's stationing direct so things should start to move forward. But wait! Mercury is now retrograde as well...so things may not move forward too quickly until Mercury turns direct on the 18th. Until then yes...some things will get sorted out and proceed as planned. That said it is still advised to not sign important agreements or make major purchases until Mercury is also direct. Also you may find your mind is going in all directions for the few days around the Mars station. Slow down and breathe as it will help to bring some clarity and focus. As noted above this is happening at the FM so pay attention to messages, communications, insights and information that come to you as it may be important to your future plans and ventures!

1/18 Mercury stations direct @ 8°08' Capricorn Now with both Mars and Mercury direct things will really start to get forward movement. It's go time! The fog clears and the path ahead starts to become clear. You may find you now feel ready to embark on those New Year projects that you set out to do a few weeks ago. Perhaps they hit some snags or delays that have now cleared up. It would be good to revisit the decisions and/or plans you may have made in the last few weeks to make sure everything is good, especially if they involved making appointments or agreements with others. Overall now and in the days ahead is a good time to take action, make important decisions, make agreements, etc.

One more thing: Did you happen to notice that both Mars and Mercury stationed direct at 8°08' of the signs there were in? I thought that was rather intriguing. Take note of synchronicities and coincidences!

1/20: Sun enters Aquarius at 12:29 am PT See next month's StarPathways Beacon for more info.
