Each year the 30 days of Solar Sagittarius (11/22-12/21) brings opportunities to renew your faith in the benevolence of the Universe and the goodness in humanity.

The Sun entering Sagittarius brings us to the end of our annual passage through the void and mysterious darkness present during Solar Scorpio. During the last 30 days it is quite likely that you had at least one encounter with your shadow. Now Sagittarius seeks answers and so a question to ask now is what came up for you during the time of Solar Scorpio? Especially of note is anything that holds you back or thwarts the life force from flowing freely through you. Sagittarius encourages you to explore what is possible and shows you how to expand your horizons. Think of it as calling forth the Phoenix to rise from the ashes!

During this time it is easier to let go the thoughts, identities and attitudes that hinder you from expressing the greater version of yourself that you are becoming!

Jupiter-Jupiter-Jupiter--this month is all about Jupiter...well almost all.

Here's why:

1-Jupiter rules Sagittarius so what it's doing during this time has extra significance.

2-Jupiter is stationing direct at the time of the New Moon in Sagittarius (11/23) A very big deal! (More below).

3-Jupiter is making its way through the final degrees of Pisces (also the last degrees of the Zodiac) completing its stay in Pisces until 2033. It will enter Aries on 12/20-21, which also happens to be the Solstice. Also a big deal! (More on that next month).

So let's get an overview of what such a potent Jupiter for the next 30 days is about:

One of Jupiter's primary "cosmic agendas" is to remind us that there is always a higher and more expansive reality available than the one we currently live in (a theme that came up in this month's Tarot reading).

Jupiter, more than any celestial body, reveals what is possible in your life by showing you the true potential that lies within you. The potential that was embedded in your being at birth and that is now ready to emerge.

Another is that it'll help to make to make attitude adjustments easier leading to new perspectives that will show you an updated version of how your soul's path is directly related to your life path.

And third is that a strong dose of Jupiter brings optimism that can restore your faith in believing that there is a divine plan and that you have a place in that plan.

Start by simply viewing things as they are, not how you think they are or should be, for this opens you to the truth, allowing you to access the next level of Truth that you are ready to embrace and live by.

This month's meditation: "Remembrance" On this meditation you will connect with your Divine Essence which is a wonderful way to tune into the sweet and gentle energies present during the Season of Light.

Sagittarius is: The "Light that illuminates your way." A beam of directed, focused light which reveals a greater light ahead illuminating the path forward. ~Malvin Atley, Esoteric Astrologer

Affirmation: I connect to the vastness of my being through my mind.

Sending you many blessings during this Season of Light ~ Elizabeth

:: About the time of Solar Sagittarius 2022 (11/22-12/21) ::

KEY to Sagittarius: Magic is found in discovering your true potential.

Exploring new options that help you see ways to pursue your dreams and to go beyond where you are now. Gaining meaningful insights that have an impact on your life. Being honest with yourself about what you really want going forward •Lower frequencies (LF): •Inaction based on thinking that everything will take care of itself (rather than doing what you know you must). Being lazy, complacent or apathetic and/or opinionated, dogmatic or judgmental. Overindulgence (over-spending/ eating/drinking/etc.) •To attune to the higher frequencies (HF): •Develop faith. Deepen your relationship to truth principles. Study the Universal logos. Make attitude adjustments where/as needed. Be open, honest, tolerant and accepting. Follow your callings even if you aren't sure where they lead. Look for ways/opportunities that align with your higher visions. Tools available to help you tap into the positive, HF during this time: Journaling, dialoging with the inner part of you that knows what you dream of and how to take the steps towards it. Meaningful conversations offering new insights are more frequent now. Listen! *This month's lesson: To have faith. To trust that you have a place and purpose in the World.

* Key events taking place this month ****

11/21 to 11/23 Mystical Balsamic Moon Phase. This is a most sacred Balsamic phase when what you envision has a greater potential to take hold in your life as Jupiter-the Great Benefactor-is stationing direct, assisting you in getting clear on what is in your highest interest in the weeks ahead. Use your creativity and imagination to envision your future in new ways!

11/23 New Moon(NM) at 2:58 pm PT at 1°38' Sagittarius

11/23 Jupiter stations direct @ 28°48' Pisces until 9/4/2023

This rare and special event increases hope and brings forth new options, insights and opportunities that may send you in a new direction in some area of your life. Due to Jupiter conjunct Neptune in Pisces there's a spiritual energy present now that can help you identify with your soul's path in ways you hadn't before. Tap into these energies by asking your angels and guides to help you raise your frequency and to see beyond the circumstances that are thwarting you or holding you back. Some keywords/energies: Tolerance, kindness, compassion, freedom, independence. Being able to see beyond where you are. Gaining new perspectives. The visionary and dreamer within is activated. Ask: "What is possible for me in the weeks ahead?" Overall this NM invites you to expand your mind and to consider new ideas and options which can lead to discovering ways to go beyond where you are now. There is assistance from the higher realms helping you to connect to/become aware of your greater potential, perhaps in way you hadn't yet been aware of. Gentleness, faith and kindness can transmute the challenges and difficulties you are facing, clearing the path for forward movement when you least expect it. This NM enhances all things of a spiritual nature.

Key Aspects: Jupiter, the ruler of Sagittarius, is stationing direct at the time of the NM

In addition to what I mention above this significant event suggests that some announcement or event could be taking place that relates to the World at large around this time. Whatever it is seeks to open a channel so that the higher energies can flow to this realm. This may not be overt though some of you may sense this at energetic levels. Also since Jupiter (and Neptune) are both stationing direct within days of each in the water sign of Pisces there could be flooding due to extreme weather. Seven planets are in mutable signs during this NM. Overall things can feel more flexible and open-ended. Encourages you to consider what only a short time ago may have seemed impossible. May feel restless and ready for change.

11/28 Mars (retrograde) trines Saturn Good for reviewing your goals and plans with a focus on what action needs to happen to move forward. Time to re-evaluate how much progress you're making on projects/tasks. With Mars retrograde you may need to reinstate routines, systems and structures that support you going forward and recommit to goals in order to up your productivity. Important to slow things down so you don't skip over or miss important details.

12/3 Neptune stations direct @ 22°39' Pisces until 6/3/2023 Mystical and elusive Neptune stationed retrograde on June 28th and while retrograde these past few months you may have rediscovered something valuable related to your spiritual path, such as a spiritual practice or body of study. If so now would be a good time to incorporate it into your life. During the days around this station there is a portal—or vortex—to other realms created and the veils between the worlds are thin allowing for the energies to transfer between them more easily. If you are sensitive to shifts of subtle energies you may feel ungrounded or spacey, have vivid and even prophetic dreams and/or receive messages of spiritual significance. Take heed!

12/6 Mercury enters Capricorn until 2/11/2023 This is a long time for Mercury to be in one sign (due to it going retro in Cap later this month). Emphasizes practicality, perseverance, maturity and relying on experience to help your planning and decision-making. Getting focused is easier resulting in greater productivity. Brings realistic and viable perspectives and is perfect for NY intention-making and goal-setting!

LF: Rigid or dogmatic thinking that isn't open to new perspectives/information or others opinions. Being cold or dry while expressing your emotions or sharing your feelings.

12/7 Full Moon at 8:09 pm PT at 16°02' Gemini The Sagittarius-Gemini FM represents “the axis of knowledge” bringing meaningful realizations and new insights that reveal things of perhaps great important to you and the path you're on. These realizations will bring culminations as well as beginnings. One possibility is that you'll organically or perhaps instinctively be drawn to re-envision your life in the context of the huge evolutionary leap we are all in-personally and/or collectively.

Brings additional emphasis to: Your thoughts and attitudes; communications; the media; events taking place in foreign countries; how you assimilate information. This FM strongly impacts the mental bringing extra attention to your conversations, thought processes, interactions, agreements and decisions. LF: Too much mental chatter can encourage self-defeating attitudes or behaviors. Let go of negative thoughts through refocusing on something positive! You may feel impatient, restless or agitated. Listen more carefully!

HF: Gaining clarity on what's yours to do and what's not. Paring down the to-do list allows you to get clear on what's most important at this time.

Key Aspect: Mars (retrograde) conjuncts the Moon (and opposes the Sun) The Moon and Mars have much to do with who or what we identify with and this conjunction will be placing a greater focus on this very thing. Invites you to identify with the “Master Plan” for your life rather than out grown versions of yourself from the past. New agendas are being presented to upgrade your sense of self.

Re-examining, revisiting and re-evaluating are all needed in order to move forward. Be extra-careful in signing contracts or making agreements. That said it is also possible that you are presented with something that requires being decisive and acting in-the-moment. If so, be sure to read the fine print and to slow down, get grounded and take a few deep breaths before jumping in.

12/9 Venus enters Capricorn until 1/2/2023 Emphasizes: Commitment, loyalty and dedication, whether to a person, project, cause, goal or your dreams. Relationships and/or partnerships tend to take a more serious turn, requiring some reexamining of your long-term goals to check if you're still "on the same page". Also your finances, budget, work and goals are focused on now. Ask: What do I really value and care about?

12/13-14 Geminids Meteor Showers 2/11/2023 Considered the strongest meteor shower of the year. Often brings messages from afar...perhaps from your future self? Viewable from 7th to 17th.
