“The only remedy for fear and doubt is reconnecting with Higher Truth.” iChing #51

Each year the 30 days of Solar Scorpio (10/23-11/22) brings some brand of intensity. This is partially caused by the veils between worlds being especially thin and the portals to the mystical realms wide open. And as intriguing as that is it can cause some uncertainty and unease and feel quite surreal for old cycles and patterns are falling away like crazy! However this allows a new foundation to be built in the etheric realms that supports the agendas of the Shift of Ages we are in. And it is in this that we can find comfort, purpose and our own place in these changing times.

This year brings a particularly potent Solar Scorpio given that there are two very strong eclipses taking place (see below) plus both Mercury and Venus are in Scorpio much of the time. In addition dynamic Uranus in the opposite sign of Taurus will act as a catalyst for these Scorpio energies to one degree or another all month. And if this isn’t enough, Mars, the co-ruler of Scorpio, is turning retrograde in Gemini (10/30) creating a lot of internal mental activity sure to stir up old thoughts, memories and patterns to be looked at and released, especially if they are holding back the renewal and growth that is available now.

You may be sensing that something special and/or unusual is happening (or about to) as you tap into these deep cosmic forces for they are rearranging and activating energies just below the surface that will shape and bring about changes in the weeks and even months ahead, internally and externally. Spiritually this is a time when Alchemical forces will rearrange and transform patterns with the higher agendas.

>Keep asking to be aligned with your truth and highest potential

While the higher frequencies are in play all month long they are especially impactful during the days closest to the Lunar Eclipse (11/3 to 11/11): This rare event can bring to the surface reminders of the power you have funded thus far in your life...power the may even have been acquired in past lifetimes and is now time for them to come forth. This is a power that has been gathering strength deep within you for a long while and in the light of this special and rare celestial it can be activated and brought into your conscious awareness. Power that comes from such a deep source is sacred and is meant to empower you in new ways, and this feeling of empowerment is one of the keys to help you recognize this alchemical process that is taking place within you. Another is that you will feel a renewed strength and courage to navigate the challenges of these times. The next step of your journey requires this kind of profound awakening to your true power. Owning this power will likely come with uncertainty for you are indeed in unfamiliar territory.

Another key is that this power is related to controlling and managing your inner environment rather than your outer life for this process is indeed related to nothing less than self-mastery.

The intensity of the Scorpionic energies and the two lunations in particular will bring all of this forward especially if you have been asking and seeking answers from the Great Mystery. The questions you've been asking may be related to such topics as: "Why am I here now? What is mine to do at this critical juncture humanity is at? What are my offerings? And what resources do I have available to fulfill my destiny?" The answers are directly related to your Dream and the vision you have held deep within your heart for perhaps eons. It is time...it truly is time to cross the threshold to the New Life that is calling you.

Sending you light-filled blessings. ~ Elizabeth

Whatever empowers you and connects you with your deepest passions. •Lower frequencies: •Misuse of power; Superficiality and/or not going deep enough to discover the truth. Envy/jealousy. Fear of not having, doing or being enough which contributes to abundance issues and/or lack consciousness. •What to be grateful for + ways to access the higher frequencies: •Engaging renewal and rebirth of any kind bringing healing and/or a rekindling of your passion and enthusiasm. The discovery/emergence of your true gifts and offerings can become clearer as a result of the transformative energies present now and in the weeks to come.

** Key events taking place this month ****

10/23 Venus enters Scorpio until 11/15 This placement of Venus is very passionate and thus adds the potential for greater ardor and intensity in your personal relationships. A strong magnetic quality is present that can pull you towards your true path, dreams and purpose. The focus now is calling to you that fulfills you. Paying extra attention to what you dream of and what fascinates you can be most revealing. This placement may bring to the surface a passion that has been lying dormant for a long time. Honesty and authenticity are especially important during this time as are honoring your commitments and agreements. Avoid becoming jealous or obsessed with something or someone.

10/22 to 10/25 Mystical Balsamic Moon Phase. This is an especially fertile time when what you envision has a greater potential to take hold in your life.

10/25 New Moon(NM)/Solar Eclipse (SE) at 3:49 am PT at 2°00' Scorpio Even though this event has passed its impact will last until the next NM on 11/23 and in deeper, more subtle ways until the next Solar Eclipse on 4/19/2023. To that point take note of what occurred around this FM/SE and of the experiences you have in the next few weeks related to Scorpionic themes (given throughout this Beacon) such as the life cycle of birth/beginnings, expression, death/endings and then renewal/rebirth. Some of which you may be aware of and others you may not as they are still hidden/unknown to your conscious self and will appear in the weeks and/or months to come and very likely at the time of the Full Moon/Lunar Eclipse (11/8).

Spirit Message: Consciously taking steps to realize your destiny generates transmutation of lower energies while also opening doors for higher vibrations to enter. Key Aspect: Venus was exactly conjunct the Sun and Moon allowing the higher energies to flow through and into your experiences with greater ease and grace. Gentleness, faith and kindness can transmute the challenges and difficulties you are facing, clearing the path for forward movement when you least expect it. The elements hold great transformative power now...think of how a gentle, but persistent, wind, can bend trees and how flowing water can smooth rocks. Do not underestimate the power of these qualities but rather embrace them as allies on your path forward.

10/27 Jupiter (retrograde) re-enters Pisces until 12/20 This is Jupiter's last stay in mystical Pisces until April 2033. During these final 8 weeks it will establish a spiritual frequency that will operate for years to come, largely at levels we can't even know. These will continue to wash away what can no longer exist in this realm, creating a space for the new patterns being created in the Etheric that support the new cycle we are entering. Personally helps you to release worry, anxiety and fears by surrendering to the Great Mystery and to have FAITH and to trust the Universe AND your innate knowing...the source of which is Spirit within you.

10/29 Mercury enters Scorpio until 11/17 •Encourages radiant/inner listening; acts as a catalyst for direct knowing. Brings the mysterious side of life into your inner dialogs. The occult, ESP, death, the world beyond, ghosts, magic, etc. are all possible topics for discussion! Look to what is unusual and unconventional for clues and answers. Conversations may get intense at times. Curiosity is strong. Mercury here can increase skepticism and suspicion, wanting proof and the facts. This isn't really a negative thing as it can force the truth to emerge that clears the way for greater clarity forging a path for a new direction. Be on the lookout for negative thoughts/attitudes and be careful with your tone of voice. With regards to others, listen carefully to what is unsaid or implied as well as to what is stated so that you can respond appropriately. In all your interactions and communications it is essential to be honest and stay in the highest integrity.

10/30 Mars stations retrograde @ 26° Gemini until 1/23/2023 For ten long weeks we will be experiencing Mars retro in Gemini which at times will act a lot like Mercury retrograde (!) where misunderstandings, difficulty focusing, forgetting names and/or why you went into a room, etc. occur on a more frequent basis. Avoid acting on impulse, responding too quickly, making rash decisions, etc. It's important to weigh things carefully before making important decisions. This is, however, a great time to do things like organize your computer, sort out files, reconsider options you let go of in the past and perhaps mend fences too! This can also help you to come up with an actionable and viable game plan for the New Year though you may find you'll arrive at some new decisions come early-January. To connect with the higher frequencies actively practice mindfulness and s-l-o-w down.

11/8 Full Moon/Lunar Eclipse at 3:03 am PT at 16°01' Taurus Shows you how to release old beliefs about yourself thereby opening you to your greater potential and allowing to see what is truly important at this stage of life. Things are shifting and changing fast now (read page one above). LF: It's important not to repeat past mistakes! Avoid excess. Release what is no longer a part of who you are now and who you want to become (habits-behaviors-etc.) HF: Seeing that the Universe is providing you with all you need to Grow! Change! Evolve! Finding the courage to embrace the great mystery of life allowing you to truly thrive. Prepares you for the cosmic shifts coming in the months and years ahead.

Spirit Message: Breakdown of the old patterns opens doors to breakthroughs that bring you to new life. Reflect on what motivates, fuels and inspires you in the present. A key to benefiting from this extraordinary FM/LE is to make certain it is your essence and your heart doing the answering and not your ego.

Key Aspect: Uranus is conjunct the Moon & opposing the Sun plus Saturn is squaring each of these. There has been much speculation on how this complex astro-event will play out in the world at large. There are two things that make it extra-ordinary: One is that this FM is also a Lunar eclipse which amplifies these influences and throws a karmic vibe into the arena/field of activity. Two is that it is mid-term Election Day in the USA. Given these two there is likely to be a highly contentious and volatile energy present that could result in violence and conflict. Passions will be running high as the push for power stirs things up even further. As well as the election there are many ways this could impact the world at large: Two areas are upheavals in the global markets are likely and turmoil and destabilization in various governments is possible. Such events are related to the lower frequencies. I should also add that with unpredictable Uranus conjunct the Moon in Taurus there may well be dynamic Earth-related events taking place as well (extreme weather, earthquakes, etc.). It's important to keep in mind that this eclipse will have a long-range effect lingering for weeks and months. At the higher levels this can be very empowering (read above).

11/15 Venus enters Sagittarius until 12/9 and 11/17 Mercury enters Sagittarius until 12/6

These two are traveling close together now and will bring a noticeable lightening up of energies as they enter Sagittarius only a couple days apart. •Brings a light-hearted energy that encourages you to explore new options. Helps you to believe in yourself and your dreams. HF: Focus on ways the universe supports you. Encourages tolerance and acceptance. •Emphasizes: Tolerance, understanding, open-mindedness, higher learning and freethinking. Restores faith and optimism. Helps shift negative attitudes to positive.

11/19 Mars (retrograde) squares Neptune Discernment and logic may not be as reliable as your intuition and instincts. Things can feel a bit off kilter. You may get a nagging feeling that you're forgetting something so this is a good time to make lists and re-check appointment times. This aspect asks you to slow down and not push yourself. A good approach now is to be willing to "not know" and see things from new perspectives. Influence lasts a few days.

11/22 Sun enters Sagittarius until 12/21 >See next month's StarPathways Beacon for more info.
